'In the City' features temporary Sports*Com closing, Purchasing Director

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. – The March 2015 episode of “In the City,” Murfreesboro’s video magazine program, is airing on CityTV throughout the month of March. You can also watch this month’s show, featuring renovations to Sports*Com, which is temporarily closed in March and April, and the new City Purchasing Director, Althea Pemsel, by viewing the YouTube link at <http://youtu.be/aFOptLgZsCE>.

This month’s episode also includes:

- The free 39th Annual Pioneer Days & 3rd Annual Backyard BBQ Festival at Cannonsburgh Village, April 25th, including a rib-eating contest. More at www.BackyardBBQFest.com.
- Murfreesboro’s Sinking Creek Wastewater Treatment Plant expansion and Manager John Strickland urges citizens to make a small change to save the City big bucks.
- The Tennessee Department of Transportation (TDOT) celebrates a big milestone with a traveling exhibit display at Linebaugh Library. For more information visit www.tdot.state.tn.us/100years.
- Talented youth in Rutherford County receive awards at the 2nd annual Rutherford County Youth Art Award Ceremony.
- Black History Month is celebrated by Murfreesboro Schools and the City Parks & Recreation Department on a special night at Patterson Park Community Center.
- Join the Murfreesboro Police Department and citizens in honoring Assistant Police Chief Roy Fields, who recently retired after three decades of faithful service.

You can also check out the March program, hosted by Callie Durham and produced by Steve Burris, online anytime www.murfreesborotn.gov/itc, or watch on CityTV (AT&T Uverse Channel 99/Comcast Xfinity in Murfreesboro Channel 3) every day at 8:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. Past episodes and our most recent stories can be viewed on our YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/cityofmurfreesboro.
