FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: June 10, 2015

Murfreesboro Schools 'CHOW Bus' featured in June edition of 'In the City'

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. – The June 2015 edition of 'In the City,' Murfreesboro's video magazine show, is airing on CityTV throughout the month of June. You can also watch this month's show on YouTube at <https://youtu.be/xnezijiN114>. 'In the City' proudly reveals how the Murfreesboro Public School system's CHOW Bus provides healthy meals during the summer months. CHOW is an acronym for Combating Hunger On Wheels.

This month's episode also includes:

- A host of fun-filled summer activities for all ages sponsored by the City Parks & Recreation Department. Summer fun includes Movies Under the Stars, Dave Macon Days & Fun Run.
- RAD, Resisting Aggression Defensively, prepares children for the real world by teaching, training, and empowering them to recognize, resist and escape violence. The camp is offered June 15-19 at Sports*Com.
- Mitchell Neilson Elementary School's 'The Leader in Me Program' is making a positive impact on students with 48 clubs and the principals of success from "7 Habits of Highly Successful People.'
- Watch Murfreesboro firefighters train for swift water rescue.
- Recognition for 21 Murfreesboro City School teachers and staff for dedicated service to the community.
- And learn a colorful technique the City Stormwater Department utilizes to help improve water quality.
