FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: July 8, 2015

Chapter 6, Parks & Rec, of Murfreesboro 2035 in July edition of 'In the City'

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. – Viewers of 'In the City' can learn more about the latest chapter in the City's 20-year comprehensive plan with a full report on draft Chapter 6—Parks, Recreation and Open Space. The July 2015 edition of 'In the City,' Murfreesboro's video magazine show, is airing on CityTV throughout the month of July. You can also watch this month's show on YouTube at <https://youtu.be/k91JytxSOsU>.

This month's episode also includes:

- A report on how schools in Murfreesboro recently ranked 23rd best in the country by research website Niche.com. No other schools in Tennessee ranked by city made the Top 50 List. For full rankings, visit www.local.niche.com/rankings.
- Hear from new director of Youth Golf Development, Jex Wilson, and see how the PGA professional is teaching youngsters the game at City schools and at Bloomfield Links.
- Watch a profile of the newest Assistant City Manager for the City. Jennifer Moody, a Nashville native, comes to Murfreesboro after working in a similar capacity in Columbia, Tennessee.
- See how gifted students in the Murfreesboro City Schools will benefit from an expanded program after teachers completed the Gifted Academy at MTSU.
- And get a close-up look at the hands-on 'Human Plus' exhibit at the Discovery Center, demonstrating how technology extends the abilities of people with special needs. Learn more at www.explorethcdc.org.
