

Puppets on the Porch

What child doesn't love a good puppet show? The Wilderness Station offers fun and educational puppet shows seasonally through the spring and fall. Kids and parents of all ages will enjoy these lively shows that feature all sorts of fun characters. Laugh and sing along with wild animal puppets as they teach your children about their habitats and daily lives. A new show is featured each week on the porch of the Station.

- This is a free program
- All ages are welcome
- Check out the Rec Connection for current dates and times of upcoming Puppet Shows