

TALES AND TRAILS

What child doesn't love a good story? Or a fun hike in the woods? Each week during the Tales and Trails program, the Wilderness Station offers a new story that your child will love. They will discover fun and interesting tales about Tennessee's native wildlife and their habitats. These tales are then brought to life by exploring the trails around the park. Curious children and adults alike are sure to enjoy this fun program.

- Tales and Trails is for children ages 4 – 7 years with an adult present
- This program takes place on Wednesday at 10:30
- The cost is $3.00/child.
- Please register your child by calling the Wilderness Station the Tuesday before class at 615-217-3017