FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: June 5, 2018

June episode of 'In the City' airing this month on CityTV and YouTube

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. – Watch local volunteers build a 'Habitat for Humanity' home and Overall Creek Elementary School students build a boat in the June edition of "In the City." The June 2018 episode airs on CityTV throughout the month or anytime on YouTube at <https://youtu.be/UTOmd1ByDg4>.

The June 2018 episode of "In the City," Murfreesboro's video magazine program, began airing Monday, June 4, on CityTV. The news magazine show airs every day at 8:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. on Channel 3 and 1094 on Comcast Xfinity, Channel 99 on AT&T Uverse, Roku, and YouTube.

In June's edition of "In the City" features:

- Meet Anika Taylor Robinson, the recipient of a new Habitat for Humanity home. Watch as she is presented with the keys to her new home by the Rutherford County organization that advocates that every man, woman and child should have a durable place to live in dignity and safety <https://youtu.be/07uFbx3u0lc>.
- Learn what a Native Tree Arboretum adds to Oaklands Park. The arboretum is certified by the Tennessee Urban Forestry Council. Steve Burris reports on this botanical garden devoted to trees with insights from Oaklands Curator/Master Gardner Connor Moss <https://youtu.be/FcH86peoQk0>.
- Follow along as Stones River National Battlefield decorates the graves of soldiers buried after the Civil War. Friend of Stones River Gary Burke places special importance on Decoration Day. His great-great grandfather joined the Union Army in Murfreesboro as a U.S. Colored Troop following Emancipation <https://youtu.be/VZjmDz4Hp2g>.
- The Murfreesboro community is celebrating the 100th anniversary of Bradley Academy. Rutherford County's all-black school opened in 1918. Graduates of Holloway High School recently celebrated the Centennial with a reunion. Michael Linn White attended the celebration and filed a report <https://youtu.be/CefRAJ4xCVI>.
