Local United Way featured on “The Insider”: City of Murfreesboro Podcast with Meagan Flippin, President and CEO

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. – Meeting the needs of people in your community. That’s what United Way is all about. Education, health, financial stability, housing, and food are just a few of the critical ways United Way of Rutherford and Cannon Counties solves problems. With Covid-19, the need for relief presents new challenges and new opportunities. Just ask Meagan Flippin, president and CEO of the United Way of Rutherford and Cannon Counties.

Flippin is the guest on this edition of “The Insider,” the City’s monthly Podcast with host Mike Browning. Listen to “Insider” at <https://cityofmurfreesborotn.podbean.com/>. If you prefer to watch the podcast on YouTube, visit <https://youtu.be/270ijyHUYuY>.

United Way of Rutherford and Cannon Counties is collecting donations for Covid-19 Relief. Donated funds provide additional support to those who may be out of work or have additional basic needs at this time. Text COVIDRELIEF to 41444.

Topics discussed with President and CEO Meagan Flippin in this edition of “The Insider” include:

- How United Way of Rutherford and Cannon Counties initially responded to the Covid-19 pandemic through www.RutherfordCannonRelief.com.
- Resources available to families seeking assistance and how to access these resources
- How Covid-19 Relief Funds are distributed
- Learn more about the Literacy ‘Day of Action’ and the Amazon Wish List.
- Volunteer opportunities and how to give to the Covid-19 Relief Fund
- How those in need can easily dial 211 for help in receiving services www.UW211.org
