FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Nov. 2, 2020

City Property Taxes due Dec. 31, 2020, without interest

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. — Finance Director and City Recorder/Treasurer Melissa Wright reminds property owners to pay property taxes on time. City property taxes are due by Dec. 31, without incurring interest charges for being late.

Property tax billings for 2020 were mailed September 30, 2020.

Taxes paid or postmarked after Dec. 31, 2020 will be subject to interest charges. The interest charges for late payment begins accruing January 1, 2021, at the rate of 1 and ½ percent per month, or any portion of a month, applied to the base tax until they are paid. Payments may be made with cash, check, or credit card. Bank counter checks or two-party checks are not accepted.

Murfreesboro Citizens no longer have to make a trip to City Hall or use the postal service to make property tax payments. An online website helps City taxpayers and those who need to access property tax information online. The web site address is available at <https://www.murfreesborotntax.com/#/> and will take you to the tax information for the City of Murfreesboro.

Citizens can pay online via Pay Pal® using Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover credit/debit cards or Forte Payment Services using an e-check. In addition, citizens can print a copy of their tax bill or a paid receipt, using the web site features. A convenience fee is added for credit/debit card transactions of approximately 2.50% (subject to change) +$.30 of the charged amount that will be added to your payment and paid directly to the credit card service provider. The fee added for e-checks is a flat $1.50.

Payments made by mail should be made payable to the City of Murfreesboro and mailed to P.O. Box 1139, Murfreesboro, TN 37133-1139. Payments made in person are to be made at City Hall, 1st Floor, Finance Department, 111 West Vine St., Monday through Friday, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
