FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: August 6, 2015

August edition of 'In the City' features Adams Tennis Complex, more

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. – CityTV's monthly video magazine show, 'In the City,' takes viewers inside Murfreesboro's newest sports facility drawing national attention.

The new Adams Tennis Complex officially opened July 15, 2015, with a ribbon-cutting. MTSU and Murfreesboro City administrators were on-hand to dedicate the 70,000 square foot complex. The August 2015 edition of 'In the City' is airing on CityTV throughout the month of August. You can also watch this month's show on YouTube at <https://youtu.be/YfwcuOiKmp0>.

This month's episode includes:

- LifeFlight 5 is stationed at Murfreesboro Municipal Airport from a temporary pad to respond to life-threatening emergencies. LifeFlight Program Director Lis Henley provides details on the improved response and plans for a permanent pad at the airport.
- Experience the sights and sounds of Uncle Dave Macon Days—the popular Old-Time music festival that delivers a $1 million economic impact to Rutherford County. Festival executive director Ben Wilson talks about how the mix of competitions and national acts set Dave Macon Days apart.
- Hear Murfreesboro City Schools teacher Rebecca Few describe her new role as a member of Governor Bill Haslam's Teachers Cabinet. As a member of the 18-member panel, Few will offer advice to the governor on educational issues and policy.
- Get a closer look at the City's new centralized purchasing system, Vendor Link, which streamlines the vendor solicitation process. The process was unveiled at a recent forum. For more information, visit www.murfreesborotn.gov/purchasing.
- Plus, breaking ground on M-Tek Kasai's new national headquarters, a look at how the City's Urban Environmental Department beautifies Murfreesboro, and an update on Broad Over Broad.
